Radio Generation are a 4 piece New Wave and Post Punk covers band based in Oxfordshire and London. They formed in 2015 in a bid to give a Doc Martin up the arse of the local music scene.

They quickly established themselves as the go to boys for energetic New Wave played at full throttle. Not only do they sound great, they look great!

Their sets are a smorgasbord of New Wave and Post Punk delights containing tracks by:

THE DAMNED, RUTS, RAMONES, BOWIE, CHEAP TRICK, JOHNNY CASH, ELVIS COSTELLO, IGGY, DEAD BOYS, STRANGLERS, NICK LOWE, ALICE COOPER, BEASTIE BOYS, XTC, THE ALARM, VELVET UNDERGROUND, TOM PETTY, PISTOLS, SHAM 69, GENERATION X, KRAFTWERK, GARY NUMAN, MAGAZINE, MINK DEVILLE, BUZZCOCKS, UNDERTONES, RUNAWAYS and JOHN DENVER....yeah really!

Shot in the Dark

2.30pm

The band formed as a 9 piece in 1986/7, but soon slimmed down to become Shot in the Dark. Apart from an early change in drummer, it is the same line up. Influences include Springsteen and Deacon Blue. Their album, "Someone Started Shouting", was released in both vinyl and CD. The vinyl seems to be quite collectable. Despite being spread across the Southern UK, they still gig when they want to. "Someone Started Shouting" is available on Spotify and iTunes. You can follow them on Facebook and YouTube.
